was being given rice &c from the Govt. Chattram at Chamarajnagar whenever the latter visited the place

The petitions were referred to the D/Commr. who has forwarded the records from which it is observed as follows:—

(His letter No. 125 dy 29.8.1905. Paper under B. disposal

The petr. appears to have been serving in the Octroi Branch of the Mysore City Municipality & being removed from there, got into the Maharani's College where also he was removed and secured a place in the Nanjangud temple & was transferred to the Chamarajnagar Taluk. The Amildar in his long report states that the petr. is a sort of a mischievously inclined man, neglecting his duty & insubordinate & misbehaved In connection with the repairs of the temple a certain record appears to have been given to the charge of the petr. who lost it and on the recommendation of the Amildar, he was suspended for 2 months and latterly transferred to the Yedatore Taluk.

In regard to the petr's complaint that Mr Veidyanatha Iyer was supplied with provisions &c from the Chatram, that Officer, in his memo states that "it is the falsest & most malicious insinuation that could be made against him". During his enquiry on certain irregularities on the part of the Parpattegar of the Chatram, the latter stated that he had given about 20 Seers of rice to Mr Veidyanatha Iyer's Cook & that on the cook being questioned he stated that 9 Seers of rice was given to him voluntarily by the Parpattegar which he received under the impression that it would be billed for. The 9 Seers was returned & credited to the Chatram. Parpattegar Krishnappa appears to have made himself scarce after the enquiry on the plea of going to Bellary. Knowing

-swami temple and the utter indifference to his work, disregard to the Amildar and insubordination are all fully dealt with in the Amildar's report No 185/192 dated 18th September 1904. It will be seen therefrom, that the Amildar, in anticipation of sanction suspended Venkatakrishnamachar for a period of not less than 2 months and recommended his transfer to another Taluk.

3. The Divisional Officer — (Mr. Vydyanathaiyer) also recommended that sanction might be accorded to the deputy Tahsildar (Venkatakrishnamachar) suspension and transfer. whereupon Mr. Kanta-rajeurs, the their deputy Commissioner in his Yadi No 690 dated 2/5 December 1904 approved of the 2 months suspension and temporarily transferred Venkatakrishnamachar to the Yedatore Taluk.
